UNISSA'S RECTOR RECEIVES 2008 SEA WRITE AWARD

Her Royal Highness Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhon*

Pengiran Dato Seri Setia Dr Haji Mohammad bin Pengiran Haji Abd Rahman, the Deputy Minister of Education, has done Brunei Darussalam proud after he was awarded the SEA Write Award in a ceremony in Bangkok, Thailand on 30 September 2008. The Deputy Minister of Education's book "Rinduku" earned him the SEA Write Award. Her Royal Highness Princess Maha Chakri Sirindhon of Thailand presented the SEA Write Award to Pengiran Dato Seri Setia Dr Haji Mohammad.

He has drawn inspiration from the surrounding environment, current issues and his personal thoughts to produce "Rinduku" which is a collection of 50 poems. Initially, "Rinduku" was published in 1985 in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia and the book was republished under the Language and Literature Bureau to join the SEA Write Award last year. In addition to "Rinduku", he has also written numerous books such as "Harga Waktu", "Salam Takwa" and "Madah Remaja", as well as more than ten anthologies of poems with local and foreign poets.

In an interview with Pengiran Dato Seri Setia Dr Haji Mohammad, he said, “Thanks to Allah’s blessing, Brunei Darussalam was able to participate in the SEA Write Award this year which took place in Bangkok, Thailand from September 25 until October 1, 2008. I am also thankful to the Almighty Allah because I was chosen to receive the SEA Write Award for Brunei Darussalam in 2008. I would also like to thank His Majesty the Sultan and Yang Di-Pertuan of Brunei Darussalam the Language and Literature Bureau under the Ministry of Culture, Youth and Sports as well as the Government of Thailand. This is the 30th SEA Write Award, which started in 1979. Brunei Darussalam first participated in the awards in 1985. We feel blessed this year, because Brunei Darussalam is included in the line of recipients for the award. I hope that with the award, other writers will be motivated to work hard in producing quality writing. I feel that our writers, who can produce quality work, have a chance of receiving the award in the future.”

“I also hope that there will be efforts to further translate the written masterpieces of each ASEAN countries into the various languages of ASEAN. And the best written works to be translated in the universal languages of English, Arab, French, and Mandarin because I feel that the quality written masterpieces are comparable with international standards.”

STUDY VISIT TO THE HIGH COURT AND MAGISTRATE COURT

Group photo of the students with the High Court and Magistrate Court authorities

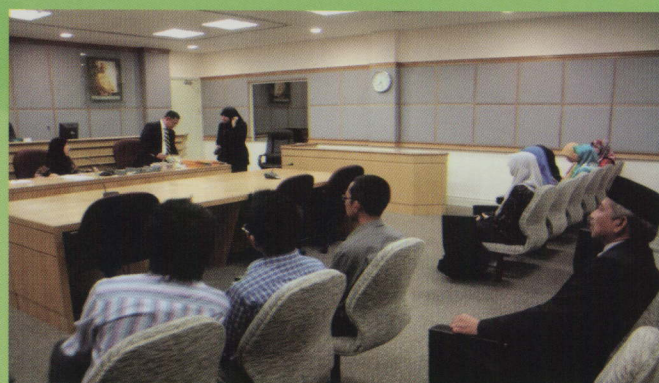

On 25 October 2008, nine first-year students from the Faculty of Shariah and Law taking the degree programme Bachelor of Law (LLB) in UNISSA went on a study visit to the High Court and Magistrate Court accompanied by one of their lecturers, Dr Haji A. Mohaimin Ayus.

Upon arrival, the students and lecturer were greeted by the Registrar of the High Court, who then gave them a presentation about the High Court and its structure. Later, the students were brought to the Magistrate Court and had the opportunity to attend 'A hearing' by Magistrate Radin Sufri.

The introduction of the LLB programme is a milestone towards the development of law in Brunei Darussalam, and all the Magistrates the students met welcomed the programme and said they were looking forward to UNISSA's Law students working in the Attorney General Chambers as well as becoming future magistrates and judges.

Apart from that, the students were informed about the opportunity for them to apply for attachment programmes both in the Courts and the Attorney General Chambers during semester holiday.
