UNIVERSITI Islam Sultan Sharif Ali (UNISSA), through its Student Affairs Section and Student Representative Council (MPP), recently held a two-day Community Services Expo at its auditorium.

The event was launched by Dr Arman bin Haji Asmad, the Assistant Rector of UNISSA, who presented certificates to the expo participants.

A welcoming speech was delivered by Muhammad Nur Azam bin Muhd Azlan, from the Exco

Unit Welfare and Community of the Student Council at UNISSA.

Among the organisations showcasing their services at the expo were the Society for Human Development (KESAN), Ukhwah Project, the youths of Ash-Shaliheen and the Syababul Iman youth group, as well as the Asian Law Students' Association (ALSA) and the Syariah and Law Society (SHALAWSOC) of UNISSA.

A talk was also delivered during which UNISSA graduates were advised to actively engage in community services, both locally and abroad.

The easier way to bank, now with biometric login.

Banking convenience on a whole new level using your fingerprint or a glance.

Standard Chartered Bank will be the first bank in Brunei to enable you to access all the services in a mobile banking app, using biometric authentication and recognition.

With a single touch or facial recognition authentication, logging in now happens in one natural motion. Best of all, your biometric is the perfect password. No one can ever guess what it is and you always have it with you.

It's digital banking designed for you. Download the Standard Chartered Mobile app now.
